

APTI BULLETIN

A Triennial Newsletter of Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India

Editorial

Dr. M. Venkata Ramana
National Vice-President, Southern Region, APTI
Executive Committee Member
Pharmacy Council of India, New Delhi.

Welcome to all APTI Members!

At the heart of the pharmacy profession lies the unwavering dedication and expertise of our teachers. They play an indispensable role in shaping the future pharmacists of our industry, imparting not only knowledge but also instilling values, ethics, and a commitment to patient care. As APTI Members, we recognize and celebrate the pivotal role that teachers hold. Their passion, innovation, and tireless efforts not only educate but inspire the next generation to reach new heights in pharmaceutical science and practice. Together, as a community, we strive to support and uplift our educators, ensuring that they have the resources and recognition they deserve. Let us continue to collaborate, learn, and grow, honoring the profound impact of teachers in pharmacy and advancing our shared mission.

Whether you're a long-standing member or new to APTI, this platform is a place for collaboration, learning, and exchanging ideas. Feel free to share your thoughts, questions, or any contributions you'd like to make. Together, we can make this space a vibrant and enriching environment for everyone.

The synergy between APTI staff and teachers is crucial for promoting teacher welfare and institutional development in India. Through advocacy, training, collaboration, and community engagement, they can work together to create a positive and supportive educational environment that benefits both teachers and students. By focusing on continuous learning, implementing best practices, and actively participating in institutional development, teachers can contribute significantly to the growth and success of the education system in India.

On behalf of APTI, I would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the APTI Editorial team for their exemplary work in curating and producing insightful content. Your dedication to excellence and commitment to fostering knowledge within our community have not gone unnoticed. Let's make the most of this opportunity to connect and grow together. Happy reading and participating!

Warm Regards

Dr. M. Venkata Ramana

IN THIS ISSUE

Editorial

Institutional News

Event Report

PhD Awards

Achievements

An official Publication of the Association
Pharmaceutical Teachers of India (APTI)
Reg. No: CMM/BNG/DECL/PP/182/2/2002
ISSN: 0973-1288

www.aptiindia.org

Institutional News

Professors from RWTH AACHEN UNIVERSITY in Germany visit ANCP (Annamacharya College of Pharmacy), Andhra Pradesh.

Delegation of professors from RWTH AACHEN UNIVERSITY in Germany, led by Prof. Dr.-Ing. Bernd Markert, Director of the Institute of General Mechanics (IAM), and Dr. Sandeep P. Patil, Adjunct Professor at CDEP Technological University, visited ANCP (Annamacharya College of Pharmacy). During their visit, they provided valuable insights and suggestions to enhance the campus facilities.

The professors actively engaged with students in laboratory experiments, encouraging them to select one standout experiment each semester to improve their interview skills. They also examined the displays in the advanced research laboratories and observed standard operations with various equipment. Additionally, they recommended additional enhancements to the laboratory setups.

Accompanied by Dr. D. Swarnalatha, Principal of ANCP, and Dr. P. Dwarakanadha Reddy, HOD of Pharmaceutics, as well as Mr. C Yella Reddy, Vice Chairman, and Mr. C. Abhishek Reddy, Treasurer of Annamacharya Educational Trust, the professors discussed their observations and recommendations.

Dr. C. Gangi Reddy, the Secretary, and Dr. C. Ramachandra Reddy, the Chairman, expressed their appreciation for the valuable inputs provided by the visiting professors. Their visit not only strengthened international academic collaborations but also contributed to the ongoing efforts to enhance the educational experience at ANCP.

Annamacharya College of Pharmacy Celebrates Sankranthi with Traditional Flair and Student Competitions

The festive spirit of Sankranthi was vividly brought to life at the scenic campus of Annamacharya College of Pharmacy (ANCP) in Rajampet, Annamayya District, Andhra Pradesh. Students from various programs including B. Pharmacy, Pharm.D, and M. Pharmacy showcased their creativity through various traditional activities such as Rangoli, handmade art crafts, and decorating Pongal pots.

The event saw enthusiastic participation, with students displaying their artistic skills to enhance the beauty of their natural surroundings. Congratulations to the event winners:

- Rangoli: Mr. B. Purna Rao (IV B. Pharmacy) and Ms. V. Kalyani (III Pharm. D)
- Handmade Art Crafts: Mr. B. Purna Rao (IV B. Pharmacy) and Mr. Saffiullah (II B. Pharmacy)
- Decorating Pongal Pots: Mr. B. Purna Rao (IV B. Pharmacy) and Ms. B. Revathi (II B. Pharm)

Sri C. Yella Reddy, Vice-chairman of ANCP, lauded the students for their exceptional performances and presented the awards. Dr. D. Swarnalatha, the Principal, praised the organizers for their efforts in ensuring the success of the festivities.

Best Paper Presentation Award for ANCP Faculty at National Seminar

Dr. V. Sarovar Reddy from Annamacharya College of Pharmacy (ANCP) received the Best Paper Presentation award at the "National Seminar on Animal Models for Human Diseases: Ethical Issues and Alternatives to Animals" at Yogi Vemana University, Andhra Pradesh, India, on February 6th and 7th, 2024.

The seminar, organized by Yogi Vemana University's Department of Zoology, focused on ethical considerations and alternatives to animal models in disease research. Dr. Reddy's presentation stood out among contributions from scholars nationwide, hosted by VIRCHOW Biotech Private Limited.

This recognition highlights ANCP's commitment to research excellence, celebrated by the Annamacharya Educational Trust leadership. Dr. Reddy's achievement underscores ANCP's dedication to advancing pharmaceutical education and research.